What Should I Expect at Convention?

- Coaching Education: Presented by world-class presenters, our collection of over 170 lecture sessions and field demonstrations will offer coaches at every level something to bring back to their own training sessions.
- Building Connections: The United Soccer Coaches Convention features socials, meal functions, and award ceremonies that allow attendees to make lasting connections with other coaches and administrators.
- The Business of Soccer: Featuring vendors from all corners of the soccer landscape, our expansive Exhibit Hall allows attendees to test out products and find solutions to assist with daily coaching and administrative duties.
- Award Recognition: The association recognizes excellence in soccer, academics, and service to the game, through a multitude of awards events and installations.

Besides the education sessions, what does my convention registration include?

- Your registration to the 2026 United Soccer Coaches Convention includes access to the full 4-day education program as well as the ability to earn Special Topics Diplomas by attending the required sessions, unlimited access to the Exhibit Hall, invitations to all Coaches Community socials, and a FREE attendee shirt (while supplies last on-site).

Where is the 2026 Convention being held?

- The 2026 United Soccer Coaches Convention will be held Jan. 14-17, 2026 in Philadelphia, PA.
